

Martin J. Wagar IFA-S RAA

BIOGRAPHY

Martin J. Wagar has been actively engaged in the real estate appraisal profession since 1974. He is certified in both Michigan & Florida, holds a Michigan real estate brokers license and is a REALTOR® Emeritus.

Martin has an IFA-s designation through the National Association of Independent Fee Appraisers and an RAA designation through the National Association of Realtors®.

In 2009, Martin founded the AMC Midwest Appraisal Management Group. After retiring in 2014, he was instrumental in bringing the entire appraisal process “in house” for a large mortgage company overseeing appraisal quality control and regulatory compliance in 14 States.

Currently as President of Wagar & Associates, he provides consulting services, is a nationally recognized expert on appraising and appraisal regulations and compliance. In addition to still actively appraising, Mr. Wagar is on the advisor board for McKissock Schools and provides appraisal education through McKissock schools, Northern Michigan University, and The Michigan Real Estate Academy.
