

Geraldine Caroline Young

April 20, 1931 - April 30, 2024

Geraldine Caroline Young (Maraulo) was born in Grosse Pointe, Michigan on April 20, 1931. Daughter of the late Martha and George Maraulo and sister of the late Mary Anne Maraulo Burns. Gerry passed away on Tuesday, April 30, 2024 at 93 years old after a graceful battle with Alzheimer's. The family was blessed to celebrate her 93rd birthday on April 20th, and she even read her "HAPPY BIRTHDAY" banner.

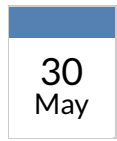

Gerry and William Albert Young III (deceased 1993) were married on November 3, 1956. They met at the University of Michigan while Bill was in law school, and Gerry was an undergraduate. They both graduated in 1952 and proudly supported their alma mater. She is survived by her loving two children: Kevin (Maria) and Kathy Young. Gerry was most proud of her two grandchildren, Alex Krusinski and Angela Young. Angela graduated from the University of Michigan in 2022 happily following in her Grammy's footsteps.

Gerry started her career as an elementary school teacher in Lakewood, Ohio. Gerry and family spent 18 years in New Canaan, Connecticut. In 1994, she began her rise to become one of the top realtors in Grosse Pointe. Gerry was a huge Michigan sports fan and loved playing golf, tennis and paddle tennis in the winter. She regularly beat her kids at all sports. Gerry also loved watching her kids and grandchildren compete. When her kids were younger, she was a constant fixture at all their sporting events. During football season, the first row of the stands was left empty so Gerry could run down the sidelines with Kevin, usually beating him. At swim meets, Gerry would race down the side of the pool while Kathy was competing. She was always supportive and loving.

Gerry suffered from severe Alzheimer's disease since 2015. The family offers a special thank you to the great caregivers at Beechwood Manor Assisted Living in St. Clair Shores for the care they provided to Gerry for the last seven years. They always looked after Grammy with loving care.
